

Blood Borne Pathogens (BBP) Quiz

1. The only infectious disease carried by the blood that you should be concerned with is HIV.  True  False
2. You can tell who is infected with Hepatitis B because they will always have visible symptoms.  True  False
3. You can only contract BBPs through sexual contact or by sharing needles.  True  False
4. HIV and Hepatitis C are preventable by vaccine.  True  False
5. The Hepatitis B virus can survive outside of the body for at least a week.  True  False
6. Universal Precautions require that you consider every person and all blood and body fluids to be potentially infectious.  True  False
7. You must use appropriate personal protective equipment (PPE) each time you perform a task involving potentially infectious material.  True  False
8. You should always direct the injured student/employee on self-care if possible.  True  False
9. If you are exposed to blood, you should wash the area immediately.  True  False
10. Good Samaritan acts are covered under the Blood Borne Pathogens standard.  True  False

I certify that I have reviewed the training presentation and understand my responsibility related to blood borne pathogens.

Name (Print): _____

Signature: _____

Department/Site: _____

Date: _____