Annie Performances

The much anticipated performance of Annie is here! The kiddos have been working very hard to nail down their lines and perfect their songs. The final performances are scheduled for after spring break.

Children's Show - 4:00 Monday April 17th

Parent Show - 4:30 Wednesday April 19th

If you cannot make it to the parent show and would prefer to come to our kids show, please feel free!

Donations

After speaking with the kiddos about how we wanted to “sell tickets” for our play, it was decided that we could take the opportunity to support our local food shelf. At the entrance to our performance will be a table set up for any donation items.

You can also send food items with your kiddos any time through out the week of April 17th - 21st.
